

Student Notice

Subject:	Extension of the 2021 TVET Colleges' Continuing Students Appeals Period
Date of student Notice:	May 20, 2021
Overview:	The communication is to alert the students that the deadline for TVET colleges continuing students appeals has been extended from 17 May 2021 to 31 May 2021, at midnight and students can still submit their appeals.

How does this affect me, the student?

The student now has an extended period to lodge their appeal with the TVET college's Financial Aid Office.

Which category of student does this affect?

TVET colleges' continuing students, ie. A continuing student who was funded in 2020 and is lodging an appeal for 2021 because their funding for 2021 was not approved.

When will this be implemented?

With immediate effect.

What does NSFAS/ institution need from me?

Completed appeals form and supporting documents, submitted to your TVET's financial aid office.

How does this help me as the student?

You now have an extended period to lodge your appeal.

Important things I need to know?

The continuing student appeal's application form is obtainable at the TVET college's Financial Aid Office. Your completed appeal form together with the supporting documents must reach the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible, as the college's Appeals Committee must sit and make a recommendation and submission to NSFAS before or on the May 31, 2021.

Who do I speak to for enquiries related to this?

Your TVET college's Financial Aid Office.